Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Queen Vernita Explores the Oceaneers Coastline is the latest in the Queen Vernita s educational series. In this adventure Queen Vernita and Carl take a coach trip up the coastline of the Oceaneers Kingdom. Queen Vernita and Carl visit Twelve new friends during the twelve months of the year. In each month they spend their days exploring caverns, tide pools, swimming in the ocean and camping in the Redwood forest. In February, when they visited Stacy they learned about the jellyfish that lived in the tide pools where Stacy lived. They learned that jelly fish are 95 water, and that most jellyfish do not have brains. The box Jelly fish has evolved to have four information processing systems to manage their 24 eyes. In April when Spring came Queen Vernita and Carl visited with Claudia. During their visit they learned about Sea lions. They learned that Sea Lions are related to Walrus and Seals. They also learned that Sea Lions love fish and squid. As the month ended they all three swam in the ocean with the Sea lions. They watched them as they swam up to 25 miles per hour. It was such an incredible experience. They soon traveled to the caverns along the coastline. They explored the caverns using only a candle. Here they learned about Stalagmites and Stalactites. They learned that stalagmites are formed from the floor and the largest one is over 204 ft high. Richard who is a spelunker taught them that stalactites are formed from the ceiling. The longest is twenty seven feet long. As the trio traveled through the months of the year they soon came to December. In December they meet Blake and his...
