

Wild Arum: The Secret Life of Lords and Ladies (Paperback)

By Lynden Swift

Green Yaffle Press, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Concise ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wild Arum. The most mysterious, stylish and sexual plant that you will ever meet. A Crafty Malignant Antediluvian Vegetable is how Arum was described by the Victorians and no wonder. This is a plant which is said to induce insatiable sexual desire and has multiple orgasms as part of its reproduction. It has mythical links with serpents, death, creation and sexuality. It is included in the first ever encyclopaedia and in the remedies of a Welsh healing family who say they were taught by the fairy folk. Legends tell of its power to rouse bears from hibernation and how its pollen glows at night giving it the name of fairy lamps . Known as Cuckoo Pint, Stallions and Mares and Dog s Dibble, amongst a host of other local names, Arum Maculatum has always stirred our imaginations. The unmistakable sexual suggestiveness carried in its curves has led to it being universally considered a powerful aphrodisiac. Reflecting this bawdy sexuality the plant has inspired over 150 common names in English alone: more than any other British plant. To know the...
