

Side Effects: Another Dose of Stories from a Country Doctor (Hardback)

By M D Jimmie Ashcraft

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2013. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Upon hearing the words side effects most people think of something adverse happening with a drug or medical procedure, but it means much more. A side effect is something that occurs as a consequence to an event and does not have to be related to the field of medicine. Circumstances may make a side effect harmful, beneficial, or both. Side effects can produce many questions. What happens when the best of intentions goes terribly wrong, or when a bit of luck turns everything right? How does an old drug s bad side effect find a good use? What would your doctor do if you wanted to die and your family would not allow it? What occurs when an age-old problem finds a new treatment by serendipity? These and other true stories told by a Montana country doctor create conversations for the reader to contemplate, discuss, and enjoy. As the second of four brothers from a poor family in Montana, Dr. Jimmie Ashcraft aspired to be a physician since his youth. He worked his way through college and graduated from the...
