For those readers who enjoyed the Best Seller - A Child Called It - By: Dave Pelzer, and have been patiently awaiting another great book. Wait no longer. Through Hell and Out the Other Side - Stories of a Therapeutic Foster Mom - By: Ellen Harlie The Story of a Woman s Love for Children and the 55 unloved, unwanted, damaged children she took in. You should write a book. During her 18 years of being a therapeutic foster parent, as Ellen Harlie related her stories of troubled placements to psychiatrists, psychologists, counselors, children s welfare agents, children s welfare managers, police officers, school counselors, teachers, principals and other persons within the system, at one time or another they inevitably made the comment, You should write a book. Four and a half years after retiring from fostering, the book, Through Hell and Out the Other Side - Stories of a Therapeutic Foster Mom is a reality. This is the story of a woman s love for children and the 55 unloved, unwanted, damaged children she took into her home giving them the opportunity to enjoy a normal family life. Most of these children were unaccustomed to nutritious sit down meals, a room with a bed of their own, clean clothes, normal day to day hygiene, a five acre place in the country to build a fort, a creek to catch lizards and frogs, kittens, dogs, a pool to swim in the summertime, a place to ice skate in the wintertime, a basketball court, lots of other kids with which to get up a game of baseball or basketball, freedom to be creative, a structured environment with dignity and respect, but...
