I thought I could save the world. I thought that protecting those around me from hurt and pain was what I was born to do. She made me feel that way. Ava Links, the little girl who was too fucking stubborn for her own good. The little girl who absorbed the hurt and pain of everyone around her and tried to bring sunshine to them all. The little girl who didnt give a damn if people picked on her about wearing a crown and tutu every day. A little girl who somehow looked at me, expecting no, damn near demanding I protect her. I saw the pain she hid, and as I grew older, I understood that pain. The pain of being so much to so many that there is really never a you. I took control of my life. . . I had to get away from everyone who pulled at me in order to claim myself. When I became the man I was destined to be, I began to...
