By Iain Maitland

Hodder Stoughton General Division, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. wonderful, moving, humorous . extremely poignant Charlie Mortimer, Dear Lupin Iain s love for his son shines through every sentence of this affecting account, as does his guilt. He blames himself for being unable to demonstrate or verbalise his affection . This is a wonderfully entertaining and moving book, with lessons for every parent. Daily Mail A moving read - honest, funny and sad Woman and Home Raising the issue of men s mental health is important . loving and well meant mix of letters and commentary. ExpressDear Michael, Moving your whatnots et al into the flat has put paid to any improvements in my back. Still, at least it s done now. Your mother is already worrying how you ll cope and is at work on reams of notes on all sorts of matters from how to tel if meat has gone off to washing whites. Smell it and wear black is my advice. When Iain Maitland s eldest son left home for university he wrote regularly to him: funny, curmudgeonly letters chronicling their family life and giving Michael unsolicited and hopeless advice...
