

It s the Gentle Breeze That Guides Us (Paperback)

By Marianne a McDonald

Marianne a McDonald Books, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Rebecca loved her life and everything about it. She loved the sounds of cadence in the morning and reveille when she went to sleep. She loved the feeling of safety and comfort emitted by the presence of soldiers in uniforms and heavy combat boots. She loved the constant visual reminder of their environment by seeing the high and tight haircuts that Carl and every other soldier sported. She especially loved the patriotic feeling of being a part of this unique community. She knew that it all eventually had to end, but she never expected it to end like this. Carl had left on a Routine Training Exercise eight months ago. Routine Training Exercises were supposed to be just that, routine. If that were the case, why was it that Carl had not returned? They were telling her that they didn't know where he was, but she suspected that wasn't true. She didn't know which to believe, them or her own instincts. After fourteen-years as a military spouse, there were only two things she never got used to....
