

Epistemic Fragments: Reflections (Paperback)

By Elihu Carranza Ph D

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .These reflections are meditations about the Spiritual Dimension of Existence (SDE). The SDE Worldview holds that all human beings possess God s Endowment: the Image of God. Each individual is a Created-Person with a vast library of spiritual characteristics in profound complexity and experienced in daily thought and life. Everyone at some stage of life will ask in wonder what lies beyond the Epistemic Horizon. Avoidance of ultimate questions concerning significance, meaning, belief, truth, knowledge, and value is not a live option. Suppressing the quest for ultimate meaning as bogus inevitably proves to be problematic for this choice assumes meaning itself. Naturalism s hypotheses, theories, or models are unsatisfactory because its worldview arbitrarily limits knowledge to its methods and conclusions - all of which are probabilistic, subject to subsequent revision or rejection. Its closed space-time system of matter in motion plus chance, wherein all reference to the Supernatural is suppressed or denied begets a reductionist frame of reference leading to nihilism. Man is a useless expression resigns one to meaningless existence, or Bertrand Russell s unyielding despair. Held to the prison of...
