

International Human Rights Law in Africa (Paperback)

By Frans Viljoen

Oxford University Press, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. 2nd Revised edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book provides a comprehensive and analytical overview of human rights law in Africa. It examines the institutions, norms, and processes for human rights realization provided for under the United Nations system, the African Union, and sub-regional economic communities in Africa, and explores their relationship with the national legal systems of African states. Since the establishment of the African Union in 2001, there has been a proliferation of regional institutions that are relevant to human rights in Africa. These include the Pan African Parliament, the Peace and Security Council, the Economic, Social and Cultural Council and the African Peer Review Mechanism of the New Partnership for Africa s Development. This book discusses the links between these institutions. It further examines the case law stemming from Africa most important human rights instrument, the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights, which entered into force on 21 October 1986. This new edition contains a new chapter on the African Children s Rights Committee as well as full coverage of new developments and instruments, such as the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities,...
