Liberty Fund Inc, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Volume 4 ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. Introducing Market Forces into Public Services is the fourth volume in Liberty Fund s The Collected Works of Arthur Seldon. It brings together six of Seldon s most pivotal essays that discuss his alternative proposals for paying for public services rather than through coercive taxation. Specifically, Seldon focuses on the varied use of vouchers and the choices people have regarding purchasing or receiving such public services as health care and education. The recurring theme, as noted in Colin Robinson s introduction, is that non-market provision, financed by taxpayers, leads to a fatal disconnection between suppliers and consumers. Throughout this book, Seldon examines the options and obligations of the government as the middle-man. Seldon creates a compelling case that through a return to market principles, efficiency in the provision of these services will improve, and, above all, people will regain the incentive to provide for themselves instead of relying on the state. This volume is an invaluable resource for those embroiled in the public debate over such issues as education vouchers, managed health care, and overwhelming taxation. Arthur Seldon has been writing on classical liberal economics since the 1930s, when he was a student at the London School of Economics during Friedrich Hayek s time there. For over thirty years, from the late 1950s, he was Editorial Director of the London-based Institute of Economic Affairs, where his publishing program was one of the principal influences on governments all around the world, persuading them to liberalize their economies. His Collected Works in these seven volumes are a major contribution to classical liberal thought. Colin Robinson was a business economist for eleven years. He was then appointed to the Chair of Economics at the University...
