Transcendent consciousness connects us at each and every free will choice. This transcendence establishes a qualitative and quantitative value to each free will decision. The contributory aspects of a universal consciousness is far greater than normally expressed by most philosophers, theologians, and spiritualists. Worship and meditation are only two components of transcendent consciousness functions. C J Jung was very close to realizing the revolutionary aspects of transcendent consciousness through his study of synchronicity. The functional basis of transcendent consciousness is the mechanism of all non-local phenomenon: religious, spiritual, paranormal, psychic, and psi. It is also the mechanism explaining the power of positive thinking, intention, and the law of attraction. By projecting our consciousness we actively modify our present reality. The above and other manifestations of transcendent consciousness connects all of us to universal knowledge (past, present, and future). This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
