

May They All be One: A Response of the House of Bishops to Ut Unum Sint (Paperback)

By -

CHURCH HOUSE PUBLISHING, United Kingdom, 1997. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This booklet presents the response from the Church of England's House of Bishops to the Encyclical from Rome, Ut Unum Sint , which insists on the inseparable relation between the mission and the unity of the Church. Despite finding many areas in the Encyclical that Anglicans can agree with, the House of Bishops raises a number of issues where more study is needed. The response underlines the importance of the work of the Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission and deepening Anglican-Roman Catholic relations in the UK.
