Wildside Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 252 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. I dont know if you have had the same experience, but the snag I always come up against when Im telling a story is this dashed difficult problem of where to begin it. Its a thing you dont want to go wrong over, because one false step and youre sunk. I mean, if you fool about too long at the start, trying to establish atmosphere, as they call it, and all that sort of rot, you fail to grip and the customers walk out on you. Get off the mark, on the other hand, like a scalded cat, and your public is at a loss. It simply raises its eyebrows, and cant make out what youre talking about. And in opening my report of the complex case of Gussie Fink-Nottle, Madeline Bassett, my Cousin Angela, my Aunt Dahlia, my Uncle Thomas, young Tuppy Glossop and the cook, Anatole, with the above spot of dialogue, I see that I have made the second of these two floaters. I shall have to hark back a bit. And taking it for all in all and weighing this against that, I suppose the affair may be said to have had its inception, if inception is the word I want, with that visit of mine to Cannes. If I hadnt gone to Cannes, I shouldnt have met the Bassett or bought that white mess jacket, and Angela wouldnt have met her shark, and Aunt Dahlia wouldnt have played baccarat. Yes, most decidedly, Cannes was the point dappui. . . . This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
