In her debut book Broken but Not Shattered: I ve Found the Worth In Me, Evangelist Christine Nicholls reveals some of her deepest thoughts during a very difficult time of her life. She shares candidly on an all too familiar journey in search of love and finding not quite what she hoped for. What she did find was herself trapped in a maze of warped emotions and bad decisions which left her fighting through anger, bitterness and painful wounds of rejection. But her story doesn t end there. And she wants you to know your story doesn t have to either. In this book about overcoming emotional weaknesses, regaining our sexual integrity and making better relationship choices, Evangelist Christine keeps it real with her own life experiences and the lessons God taught her through them. She challenges women to free themselves from emotional clutter, close the door to cheap tricks and compromises, and walk as Godly daughters were created to be.
