

The General Theory of the Translation Company (Hardback)

By Renato Beninato

Nimdzi, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .You are reading this summary of the book, so we re assuming you re looking for answers. Too bad. Instead, we want to ask you some questions: Are you new to language services, an experienced industry veteran, or an industry outsider who would like to learn more? Have you been waiting your whole life for somebody (anybody) to please publish a book about the language services industry that doesn t bore you to tears? Are you a translator or owner of an LSP that is looking for insight into how to grow your business and make more money doing what you love? Has your manager just told you that you are now in charge of something called localization and you need to figure out what the hell they are talking about? Are you a manager that has just told your employee they are in charge of something called localization and would like to give them a book so you don t have to pretend you know what the hell you are talking about? If you answered yes, no, or maybe to zero or more of...
