Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Bibliography of the Analytical Chemistry of Manganese, 1785-1900 The Subject Index has been based upon such an examination of the original articles as was possible with a reasonable expenditure of time, and is based therefore upon the salient points rather than upon minute details, although an attempt has been made to carry the subdivision of subjects as far as possible. Under the heading Applications of Quantitative Methods (page 111) et those references are, in general, included in which the title of the article Specifies the material analyzed. This is particularly true of irons, steels, ferro manganese, and Spiegeleisen. We desire to express our obligation to Dr. H. C. Bolton for the permission to make use of his Index, as well as for assistance in the examination of a file of journals, and to Mr. A. C. Davis for his valuable assistance in the examination of proof-sheets. This compilation was made possible by a ready access to the valuable libraries of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, notably the William Ripley Nichols Chemical Library, but we also wish to express our appreciation of the courtesies extended to us by the Boston Public Library, the Library of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the Boston Society of Natural History, the Surgeon General's Office at Washington, the Library of Congress, the libraries of Yale, Columbia, Lehigh, and Harvard Universities, the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, and the John Crerar and Astor Libraries. Professor James Lewis Howe's excellent Bibliography of the Platinum Metals has served as a model for the arrangement of our data. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and...
