Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Jimmy O Neil is trying to get his life on track. Over the past ten years he has been through rehab after rehab, attempting to get his drug abuse under control and live a happy and sober life. His separation from his wife, Nancy, and his newfound happiness with his girlfriend, Clarissa, has been a turning point for him. Jimmy is a good-looking young man with a natural intellect that got him into Tufts Veterinary School, a dream he had since childhood. His life is turning around. His estranged wife sees what is going on, how Jimmy is becoming successful and she wants to be part of that. With convincing arguments of a new life for them and their two children, Nancy persuades Jimmy to return home. Clarissa is devastated when Jimmy tells her and decides to leave town to get over her heartbreak. But on the day that Jimmy plans on returning to Nancy, the unthinkable happens. Jimmy is found dead, shot in the chest at the sober house where he lives. The vicious shooting leaves everyone in Jimmy s life grief-stricken. The Boston homicide unit is called in to investigate, and Detective David MacDonald, a seasoned gumshoe, is willing to go to any length and distance to catch a killer. Any fans of Sue Grafton and Mary Higgins Clark will find Murder at the Sober House a thrilling ride. The unassuming killer and startling conclusion will leave you craving more.
