Nuwslink, Incorporated, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Marcy Hankin s world has been turned upside down ever since Spence Caldwell arrived in her hometown of Andonburg, Oklahoma. Why the state football champ would want to come to an out-of-the-way little town like Andonburg for his senior year is anyone s guess. Spence and his aunt and uncle have taken up residence in the old Kendallwood mansion and have plans to restore the place. The girls at Andonburg high are in a dither; the football jocks have their noses out of joint. But for Marcy it means the vast wooded acreage of the Kendallwood estate is no longer her private haven for insect collecting. Which means she ll be unable to finish her entomology project in time for the fair; her goal of winning Grand Champion is in jeopardy. Losing her special getaway place is just the beginning. Soon she s caught up in her twin sister, Cissy s, scheme to claim Spence Caldwell as her own. Cissy s plans include convincing Marcy to try out for cheerleader - something Marcy has neither the time nor the desire to do. Cissy detests every bug in Marcy s many collections. According to Cissy: No guy in his right mind would ever want to date a girl who plays around with those creepy things. It s abnormal. Spence s presence changes everything in Marcy s world. Caving to pressure and trying to fit in, Marcy finds she s denying the very things she loves. She loses sight of who she truly is and she s miserable. But then she learns that Spence Caldwell has a few secrets of his own. What actually did bring Spence to Andonburg? And what could it possibly have to...
