

Books in Russian: My Revenge (Russian Edition) (Paperback)

By Yaakov Wodzislawski

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Russian . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . OUR GRAVE WAS A DUG-OUT HOLE in the ground about 3.5 feet deep and 6 feet wide. The three of us could only sit or lie down on the straw that was under us. There were boards above us covered by straw. It was dark twenty-four hours, seven days a week. We stayed like that for 8 months. Yaakov Wodzislawski was not quite 14 when the Nazis invaded Poland. He survived ghetto life and the labor camp in his home town Czestochowa, although his parents were sent to the fires of Treblinka. Wodzislawski escaped the labor camp and found shelter with Barbara Hajdas, a Pole who was later honored as a Righteous Gentile for putting her own life at jeopardy by saving 14 Jews from the Nazis. When Poland was liberated, Wodzislawski emerged from his hideout, headed back to his native Czestochowa, and made a promise to himself: I knew I had to do something so that the Jewish nation would never again risk annihilation. I knew that we had to build our own state so that Jews could at last...
