Austin Macauley Publishers. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Will Harper the Boy with the Heart of a Man, Robert Smithson, This unusual tale is told in a very interesting and engaging style, which allows the reader to get to know all the different characters in an easy manner. When someone dies it is a time of great sadness, but not when Will Harper dies, this is a time for joy and thanksgiving for a young life that touched and healed many people, and because of the unique opening of a happy funeral, readers are drawn into the story immediately. His life is told by the people who loved him and whose lives he touched. This is a story of finding love and hope in places where things like that are thin on the ground.
