In a perpetual conflict of chaos, titanic beasts crushed all that lay beneath their clawed feet. Chaos is free and it has come back with a vengeance! It is a world of darkness without hope of light. Many races became extinct, but a few held on. Lannith is a world of magic, and it is those who learn to use this magic as a deadly weapon that have any chance of surviving. The Lords of Hollow still walk the land, their multitude of minions laying waste to all who stand before them. But there are a few who have arisen to take back the world that is their Legacy. Those who have played their last hand in an attempt to bring light into a world of despair. The Magi of Everstone are just such a people. The Magi have harnessed the power of the secret symbols they call runes and with these runes they have created powerful weapons. There groundshaking War Golems, energized rune blades, and full-shell myth-stone armor only complement their own powerful magic they wield in combat. In the Everstone book we begin the...
