To Marry a Foreigner (Paperback)

By Mila Gee

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. To Marry a Foreigner is the story of two journeys undertaken by Nadya. As an adult she traces the impact of her past in the Soviet-era Russia as she explores the realities of her life during a trip to present-day Cuba. I began traveling from the moment I was born, judging by the few remaining black-and-white photos and stories told by my parents. . By the age of ten I was traveling alone. Those trips usually commenced with my mother running after a train that was already slowly puffing away from the station and me climbing into the front door of the car, followed by my bag flying through the back door, and with the requisite net bag of provisions (roast chicken, boiled eggs, apples, and Polar Bear chocolate candy) landing somewhere in the next car. A freedom-worshipping American yoga instructor, Nadya and her American musician husband Alex embark on a trip to Castro s Cuba to shoot footage of the local music scene for Alex s upcoming video. Having been born in Russia in her own words so...
