CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 36 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Implementing Scrum is a short and compact manual for project managers about implementing Scrum in software development teams. The objective is to offer as much value as possible whilst keeping it in a usable and no nonsense format. It is a handbook that you and your teams can work with on a daily basis. Split by project roles, it offers the most important concepts for each of your team members. I explain the tools and processes of Scrum and also offer real live check-lists to work with. Some short words about me - feel free to check my LinkedIn profile as well: I am an IT project manager with a software development background. I have been working in the industry since 1999 on countless collocated and distributed projects. I hold PMP and PRINCE2 Practitioner accreditations and several SCRUM certifications. I have a pragmatic passion about Lean Agile Software Development as it helps me to finish projects successfully and I love to help other project managers achieving the same. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
