By MR Gerald Burke Leonard

Hollywood Beach Publishing, LLC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Heading home after her delivery from the hospital, Ruthie s family was devastated by a cataclysmic accident - Ruthie was left without a mother, her father turned to drunken excesses, and her cerebral damage would hinder her life throughout. Early life was psychologically devastating as her mental acuity was impaired and her frumpy appearance set her into a class by herself where she was challenged, chastized, and teased relentlessly by others for her appearance and her lack of fit into the social cliques of school. Later, she found The Dude who introduced her to drugs and sexual debauchery. Her abundant endowment had attracted the small-time ne'er do well who used her in every conceivable manner. . . but she had someone who cared and for this she was a willing participant. This little slice of heaven lasted for Ruthie until The Dude was drafted after which her withdrawal and public display of depression institutionalized her for rehab. Here she met someone who coaxed her, upon her release, to the South Side Gentlemen s Club where she became the headline...
