Dodo Press, United Kingdom, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Charles Louandre (1812-1882) est l'auteur de La Sorcellerie (1853) et Les Idees Subversives de Notre Temp (1872). C'est une croyance universelle, et pour ainsi dire une tradition native du genre humain, que l'homme, a l'aide de certaines formules et de certaines pratiques, empruntees tant? t a la religion, tant? t a la science, peut changer les lois eternelles de la nature, soumettre a sa volonte les etres invisibles, s'elever au-dessus de sa propre faiblesse, et acquerir la connaissance absolue et la puissance sans limites. Ces dons superieurs auxquels il aspire, il les demande indistinctement aux elements, aux nombres, aux astres, aux songes, au principe eternel du bien comme au genie du mal, aux anges, a Satan. Egare par son orgueil, il cree toute une science en dehors de l'observation positive; et, pour regner en maitre absolu sur la nature, il outrage a la fois la religion, la raison et les lois.
