What is the third condition of successful training? The definite dedication or setting apart of the children to be the servants and Soldiers of the Lord Jesus Christ, 2. What is to be understood by this? That there shall not only be a clear understanding of the duty you owe to your children, and a set resolve to discharge it; but that there shall be the actual presentation of them to Him to possess and fashion for His purposes, so that while you are training them with all your might from without, He shall be co-operating by the might of His Holy Spirit within, for the same end. 3. Do you recommend that this presentation should, take any definite, outward form? Yes. We advise that, at a fixed period, one or both parents--if both be agreed on the matter--shall...
