DUDE WHERE'S THE WIN

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 106 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. For those who feel joy with a tennis racket in their hand, who can't wait to get back on the base line, who have a passion for personal achievement, and who are inspired by those who give it their all, I write this book. My own passion for tennis is the fuel that keeps me going each day on the court, shot after shot, lunge after lunge, until I reach joyous exhaustion. Knowing happily that tomorrow, I get to do it again. To you, dear reader, I am deeply honored that you have selected Dude, Where's the Win. In these pages, you will go behind the scenes to visit players - including some you have never heard of - who have contributed to the sport of tennis, and in so doing, found personal wins. More importantly, you will discover some things about yourself here that you will find both revealing and motivating. In fact, when all is read and done, and you answer the questions after each profile, you will have the ingredients to write your own chapter about you. As we begin, some tennis quotes which resonate far beyond the court and reach into our hearts, souls, and lives. Today I smash racquets, for tomorrow we die. - Marat Safin I have no sense of humor about losing. - Rafael Nadal. I am happy when Rafael plays good tennis, but I take more pleasure when people say Rafael is a very good person. For me, it's so much more important to be a good person. - Toni Nadal Tennis is the loneliest sport - Andre Agassi You can have a certain arrogance, and I think that's fine, but what you...
