

The Inner Courtyard: Poems by Shilalolitha (Paperback)

By Shila Lolitha

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Shilalolitha, in her introduction to her anthology of poems titled Panjaranni Nene, Pakshini Nenecomparates herself to a grain of sand in the literary field and describes her poetry as the poetic letters born out of her search for herself. It is this passion for writing and this search for her self as well as women like her that we see in her poetry. Her pen name comes from the writer she admires, whose real name was Revathidevi, who succumbed to the societal pressures despite her vehement protest against the normative structures and traditions. That inspiration is reflected throughout her poetry whether it is in titles or themes or language of the poems. Her re-naming herself after a poet who rebelled against the patriarchal hegemonies in her life and writings and who burned down to ashes in the flames of her rebellion stands for Shilalolitha s search for herself. As a writer she has experimented with many genres, including the epistolary mode, columns, literary criticism, book reviews and others. All her writings revolve around women s experiences. Hers is one of the...
