Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Differences in Judgment About Water-Baptism, No Bar to Communion Your seemingly serious reflections upon that part of my plain-hearted Confession of Faith, which rendereth a reason of my freedom to communicate with those of the saints and faithful who differ from me about water-baptism, I have read and considered, and have weighed them so well as my rank and abilities will admit me to do. But finding yours (if I mistake not) far short of a candid replication, I thought convenient, not only to tell you of those impertinences every where scattered up and down in your book, but also that in my simple Opinion, your rigid and church-disquieting principles are not fit for any age and state of the church. But before I enter the body of your book, give me leave a little to discourse you about your preamble to the same, wherein are two miscarriages unworthy your pretended seriousness, because void of love and humility. The first is, in that you closely disdain my person, because of my low descent among men, stigmatizing me for a person of that rank that need not to be heeded or attended unto, p. 1. Ans. What it is that gives a man reverence with you, I know not, but for certain, he that despiseth the poor. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
