Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The secret organization named The Clandestine successfully creates the first generation of super soldiers known as The Originals. With powerful soldiers who have to ability to control elements and enhance their natural body functions, the rest of the world had no choice but to give up their lands and their freedom or be destroyed. The Clandestine and all of its leaders had it all figured out until the originals turned against them and escaped. The Originals scattered across the world living their lives hiding from the clandestine. As years past the Originals pass their abilities on through their children. This is the story of a group of children that will rise and put an end to the organization that tortured and used their parents. This is the story of the new generation.
