[.]pretty little woman, now over forty years of age, of whom it was said that in her day she had been the beauty of Windsor and those parts. Mary Wortle took mostly after her father, being tall and comely, having especially her father s eyes; but still they who had known Mrs. Wortle as a girl declared that Mary had inherited also her mother s peculiar softness and complexion. For many years past none of the pupils had been received within the parsonage, -unless when received there as guests, which was of frequent occurrence. All belonging to the school was built outside the glebe land, as a quite separate establishment, with a door opening from the parsonage garden to the school-yard. Of this door[.]
