Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Viscount Camden Beckinworth had lived the life of a devil-may-care rake until his parents untimely death. He cast aside his personal life, returned home to save the crumbling family business and decided to re-enter Society five years later. By then, the pesky little sister of his two best childhood friends had grown into a lovely woman and he felt alive again with her innocence and beauty in hand. After two disastrous London seasons, Susanna Loricán accepted a marriage proposal from a neighborhood friend and, while she had adored him since childhood, she never expected the man of her dreams to reciprocate her feelings. She planned the perfect Christmas Eve wedding but she didn't expect a snowstorm to barrel through the English countryside on the morning of. Susanna and Camden vowed to let nothing thwart their long-awaited day even though the storm delayed the dress and several guests. When the reverend fell from his horse and injured his head, however, they had little choice but to postpone. To worsen matters, Susanna's insufferable brother-in-law cornered and then assaulted her in the library. Does...
