Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | Causes of Low Success Rates in Basic and M.A. English Programs of South Asian, Pakistani Universities and the University of Education, Lahore | The test of a successful person is not an ability to eliminate all problems before they arise, but to meet and work out difficulties when they do arise. The same is case with education process. We must be willing to make an intelligent compromise with perfection. It's still good advice to cross bridges as we come to them. South Asian educational programs specially English programs with others need some development & planning. This book is an attempt to cross the bridge of educational problems of South Asia in dignified way & covers major aspects & elaborate almost all problems which students of South Asian universities are facing in order to achieve their ultimately goals. Their cultural conflicts, Political & economic condition mix together with emotional & educational life at the end, it leave bad impact on learning, the same points have been elaborate. The history & some opinions of intellectuals are also have been mentioned in this book with introduction of basic and advance formal education. The students, educational systems, teachers & behaviour of family with examination systems of South Asian universities have been evaluated. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: english | 64 pp.
