

Take Back (Paperback)

By Alexander Robles

Lulu.com, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the initial stages of major drug-trafficking into the U.S., a Mexican General establishes an underground Mexican Military and uses other Government officials to take advantage of the enormous profit the U.S. drug trade provides. They then take over most of the trafficking operations away from Colombians and subsequently build a monetary empire second to none. They established a Cali-like enterprise in the U.S. and eventually uses its profits to corrupt candidates and elected officials in the United States all the way up to the White House. The new powerful Mexican Government succeeds in getting back the State of New Mexico to become part of Mexico. They are determined to take back, not just New Mexico, but also, California, Arizona, Colorado, Texas, Utah and Nevada . The main character is General Jesus Montes, who eventually uses the dirty monies to have his brother, Vicente Montes, elected as President of Mexico.
