Pocket Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Mass Market Paperback. 432 pages. Dimensions: 6.7in. x 4.1in. x 1.0in. Three granddaughters. Three months. One summer house. In this enchanting trilogy set on Sullivans Island, South Carolina, New York Times bestselling author Mary Alice Monroe captures the complex relationships between three half sisters scattered across the country and a grandmother determined to help them rediscover their family bonds. Set amid ancient live oaks and palmettos, overlooking the water, historic Sea Breeze is Marietta Muir's ancestral summer home. Her granddaughters once adored vacations there, but it's been years since they've visited. Mamaw fears once she is gone, the family bonds will fray. The Muir family is one of Charleston's oldest and the blood of their pirate captain ancestor runs strong, so Marietta drops a subtle promise of loot: pearl necklaces, priceless antique furniture, even the house to lure her summer girls back to the lowcountry. For years, Carson Muir has drifted, never really settling, certain only that a life without the ocean is a life half-lived. Adrift and penniless in California, Carson is the first to return to Sea Breeze, wondering where things went wrong . . . until the sea she loves brings her a minor miracle. Her astonishing bond with a dolphin helps Carson renew her relationships with her sisters and face the haunting memories of her ill-fated father. As the rhythms of the island open her heart, Carson begins to imagine the next steps toward her future. In this heartwarming novel, three sisters discover the true treasures Sea Breeze offers as surprising truths are revealed, mistakes forgiven, and precious connections made that will endure long beyond one summer. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Mass Market Paperback.
