

Angels of Mercy - Volume One: Elliot: His Summer of Love (Volume 1)

By S A Collins

Akwekon Media. Paperback. Condition: New. 540 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.2in. On the cusp of his senior year at Mercy High, Elliot Donahey, an out but terminally shy gay young man who keeps to the shadows never wanting to be seen or noticed suddenly finds himself in the arms of the highest profile jock on campus, local star quarterback, Marco Sforza. Their lives, and those closest to them will never be the same. Set against the backdrop of competitive sports, this character study work (the first in a series) deep dives into the lives of these young men who each must play the game so Marco can play the game he loves. They are just trying to find some small slice of happiness to call their own amidst their hellish final year of high school. Authors Note: Angels of Mercy is first and foremost, a character study. A great deal of it is inner-monologue. Elliot will pause the action, will break momentum as he grapples with his world all the while flipping a finger to the fourth wall. He knows you're there. It was far more important to me as its author (and a gay man) that the reader...
