The Hidden Land of Umble and the First Unicorn (Paperback)

By Billie Ard Saunders

BookBaby, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Kellyn Richardson (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book. Having royal parents, a young foal is born with a unique problem. A problem that no one has ever seen before. She has a stick growing out of her forehead. This young foal has several siblings and as time passes she watches them grow up and become like their royal parents. Having loving parents watch over her and attempting to tackle life's challenges with this unique problem, this young foal eventually sets out on an adventure or quest that her father, the king, has encouraged her to take. The king teaches her about a legend concerning a specific individual that everyone calls the wisdom seeker. The wisdom seeker, as the legend says, knows all things and perhaps the wisdom seeker can help this filly with her unique problem. Although no one has ever seen the wisdom seeker, the king gives his daughter a special gift that once belonged to his grandfather to help guide her way as she searches for the legend told. Along her adventures she meets some pretty interesting characters that become her closest friends. She finds out about magic and the source...
